1.1 General specifications & specifications of Items:

1.1.1 Scaffolding

- 1) Conventional Scaffolding shall be of double bamboo scaffolding and filled by suitable horizontal / cross members secured to each other firmly by coir or some such sturdy arrangement. This scaffolding shall be erected in two rows both connected and braced properly and secured by connecting with the members of permanent structure. No holes shall be permitted in external brickwork. No lateral supports shall be taken from the window frames or shutters. Necessary platforms and railings shall be provided to ensure the safety of workers. To reduce the height of falling debris intermediate platforms on the scaffolding shall be erected. Also, the entire scaffolding shall be covered with Hessian cloth in good condition so as to contain the falling objects, if any, in the scaffolding area only. In any case, no object of any size shall fall outside the scaffolding area, which shall be considered as punishable offence.
- 2) The scaffolding and/or suspended platform shall be designed in such a way that all the parts of the external facia, including the ceiling of the projected portions like chajjas, balconies etc. can be approached conveniently by the workers and engineers.
- 3) Safety nets shall be provided above all those areas where any kind of man-movement is anticipated. The safety net shall be made up of minimum 10 mm dia nylon ropes spaced not greater than 75 mm apart. The net shall be tied in such a way that no area is left out at the edges as well as at the overlap portions. The net shall be covered with the fishermen net so as not to allow any particles through the same. The fishermen net shall be maintained from time to time, by replacing the damaged portion. The same shall also be cleaned at regular interval so as not to accumulate the debris.
- 4) Mode of Measurement : The scaffolding shall be measured; whenever specifically payable, as the net area of the structure covered by the scaffolding wherein the repair activities are carried out. It shall not be paid separately unless noted otherwise. Engineer decision regarding payment of scaffolding shall be final and binding to both, the contractor and the owner.

1.1.2 Covering

- 1) Windows and glazing shall be covered appropriately to avoid any damage and to protect the glass panes from falling debris. Any glass panes broken during the work due to negligence or improper covering shall be replaced by the Contractor at his own cost.

- 2) The area under repairs shall be covered with stitched Hessian tied to the external face of the scaffolding in order to avoid lumps of broken concrete and dust flying around and causing accidents. Fencing, barricades shall be erected to dissuade third persons entering the work area.
- 3) Any equipment, fixtures, fittings including the parked vehicles adjacent to the work area, should be either removed or adequately covered by owners to avoid damage/breakage during the progress of work. However it shall be the responsibility of the Contractor to identify such problems and to indicate the same to the Owner / Owners representative well in time.

1.1.3 Demolition & breaking

1) Care shall be taken not to disturb sound portion of concrete/ masonry/ plaster. Unless specified to remove entire plaster, all the weak, cracked and damaged portions of plaster/ external rendering shall be first demarcated by the contractor jointly with the Engineer. This shall be done by using a light hammer (¼ Kg) for tapping the surface and noting the hollow sound in the particular area.

Demarcation shall be actually done on the surface using electrically operated portable cutter. Demarcation activity shall not be paid separately unless specifically mentioned. Plaster and loose concrete shall be broken using only the hammers (max. wt.1.25 kg) and chisels of approved weight and type. The chisels shall necessarily be with sharp edges .Mechanical breakers shall be preferred over ordinary tools, However, in any case, forceful removal of plaster / concrete shall be avoided. Patches shall be broken in a rectilinear manner as much as possible.

2) Care shall also be taken to avoid noise, dust etc. as much as possible.

3) All precautions shall be taken by providing guard rails and covers in the interest of the safety of passers-by.

4) The debris shall be stacked neatly. Debris shall not in any case be thrown / dropped from height more than 1m. Unless specifically permitted to use elevators / staircase, debris from terrace shall be shifted to ground using pulley blocks / ropes only.

5) Concrete; even if weak and damaged, shall not be removed from core i.e. beyond the reinforcement bars, unless specifically instructed by the Consultant.

6) Stacked debris shall be carted away as soon as possible and no separate payment shall be made whatsoever for debris removal.

1.1.4 Repairs to damaged RCC members

Categories of damage to concrete shall be identified as follows.

There will be generally four categories of defective concrete depending upon the degree of corrosion of reinforcement, and deterioration of surrounding concrete.

- a) Category No. 1. Damage only due to corrosion of reinforcement which itself is in tolerable state and core concrete is sound.
- b) Category No. 2. Damage due to corrosion of reinforcement which is in tolerable state but core concrete is unsound due to inherent honeycombing, voids, cavities, deterioration etc.
- c) Category No. 3. Damage due to corrosion of reinforcement is severe but core concrete is sound. Reinforcement is required to be restored using additional reinforcement.
- d) Category No. 4. Damage due to corrosion of reinforcement is severe and core concrete is also unsound. Reinforcement is to be replenished by additional reinforcement.

These categories shall be defined by the Consultant location-wise to decide method of repair.

Damaged area shall be demarcated and prepared for repair as follows.

- a) The doubtful area shall be tapped with a light hammer(¼ kg). Any loose plaster or coating shall be removed to expose the concrete surface to be treated. The area with hollow sound shall be considered as damaged area.
- b) In case the concrete is found to be damaged, the area around also shall be hammer tested and the total damaged area demarcated.
- c) Preparation of Base shall be done by removing carefully all loose, disintegrated and cracked concrete using chipping hammer(1.25 kg) and/or chisel with sharp edge up to sound core concrete and to expose the rusted reinforcement. The removal of concrete shall be extended at least 150 mm beyond the rusted length of reinforcement. Care shall be taken to leave sound and compact concrete undisturbed and to ensure that a good bond between the embedded reinforcement and parent concrete is not broken.
- d) The peripheral edges of broken concrete shall be cut true and in rectilinear patterns. Re-entrant angled corners shall be chamfered.
- e) Such demarcated areas shall be marked on the drawings for documentation purpose along with all the details including the categorization details.
- f) Coating if any shall be removed to the extent of 100 mm. Beyond the cut edges of the damaged area.
- g) All the specification mentioned above for breaking & demolition shall be strictly followed.
- h) Any inherent honeycombing, voids, cavities etc. shall be noted and recorded for grouting.

Existing reinforcement shall be treated as follows:

- Any existing reinforcement reduced in size beyond acceptable limits as certified as such by the Engineer shall be removed. The acceptable limits shall depend on the type and location of reinforcement which is as follows:
 - main reinforcement of columns/beams—upto 75% of original diameter
 - links/ stirrups---upto 70% of original diameter

- slabs/ chajjas etc.—upto 70% of original diameter
- The remaining reinforcement shall be cleaned thoroughly to remove all scales, rust and blemishes by light chipping and scrubbing with mechanical wire brush Any dislodged but acceptable reinforcement shall be anchored by means of dowels secured in the parent concrete using fixing aids like epoxy putty and ends turned to lock the reinforcement in position as shown in working drawings or as directed by the Engineer
- Providing New Reinforcement (In case of category 3 & 4)
- Where the existing reinforcement has rusted and wasted to an extent where it cannot be accepted as specified above, new reinforcement, in the form of steel bars and/or welded/G.I. mesh shall be provided as detailed in the working drawings.
- The new reinforcement shall be clean and free from loose mill scales, dust, rust, paint, oils etc. which may affect bonding between bars and concrete.
- The reinforcement represented diagrammatically on drawings and sketches may not necessarily show in true projection. The reinforcement shall be assembled in accordance to clause no. 11 of IS : 456-1978.
- Reinforcement shall be anchored to parent concrete by means of dowels secured in parent concrete by fixing aids and ends turned to lock the new bars in position as shown in the working sketches or as directed.
- Reinforcement shall not be bent after being embedded in concrete. Laps in reinforcement may be allowed only with the prior approval of the Engineer. The lap length shall be as specified. on the working drawings
- Reinforcement may be required to be welded to the existing reinforcement as directed. The welding shall be done only with specific instructions from the consultant and all the necessary requirements as per the relevant IS code(IS-816) shall be followed.

1.1.5 Protection of Reinforcement shall be done as follows:

- The contact between the exposed steel and parent concrete shall be re-established by caulking with the specified putty/mortar before restoring the damaged concrete.
- The saved reinforcement (original) along with the new reinforcement shall then be coated with a specified protective coat (passivator coat) as per the manufacturer's specifications.

1.1.6 Damaged Concrete

Damaged concrete shall be restored /repaired as detailed in the working drawings and as directed by the Engineer. However following specification shall be generally followed unless specifically instructed otherwise.

- a) Bond coat: The bond coat shall be prepared as per manufacturers specification or as directed by the Engineer. It shall normally consist of cement + acrylic based latex type of polymer
- b) Micro Concrete / Polymer modified mortar to make good the damage:

Preparation : The platform for mixing shall be a clean, even and closed boarded or any other form of hard clean and impervious surface of adequate size.

Mix : The ready-to-use . single component, fibre-reinforced mortar is to be only mixed with water in the proportion as recommended by the manufacturer.

Batches : Making good the base is a slow process. Utmost care must be taken in order to use the mix well within twenty minutes after mixing).

Workability : Proper workability of the mix shall be obtained by using a Plasticizer of approved make , if necessary. Preliminary trials are necessary to determine the optimum dosage to obtain the desired workability for a particular water content.

Application of mortar / concrete:

a) Making good local depressions/cavities :

Local depressions/cavities, if any, shall first be cleaned. The prepared concrete surface in depressions/cavities shall then be coated with the bond coat with a stiff brush taking care to work the slurry into the depressions, cavities etc, new concrete / mortar shall be then applied on the bond coat wet on wet. The concrete shall be applied by trowel directly on the area just enough to fill the cavities/depressions, pressing it in place and allowed to rest for 12 to 18 hours.

b) Reinforcing mesh : Wherever instructed, reinforcement in the form of welded wire fabric and / or chicken mesh of specified gauge and opening shall be tied to the existing / new reinforcement bars before application of bond coat.

c) Bond coat : The prepared concrete surface along with the existing and / or added reinforcement shall then be cleaned and coated with the bond coat. Such a coat shall not be used wherever concrete cannot be placed within 45 minutes, such as when formwork is required in case of micro concrete application.

d) Concrete / mortar pack or placing of concrete:

i) Area in between but not involving corners :

The concrete/ mortar pack shall be applied directly on the bond coat wet on wet by trowel in layers and pressing manually in position. Each layer shall be approximately 25 mm thick maximum and shall be pressed in position with hand and/or by a steel spatula to make it dense. The final line and level of the concrete pack shall be finished to match with the existing surrounding concrete surface and to receive further protective treatment as specified.

ii) Area involving corners:

Guide strips shall be used to define and to maintain lines and levels of corners of columns, beams etc. The portion directly under the guide strips only shall be first covered with the bond coat. The concrete shall then be packed behind the guide strips from two sides, and allowed to set for 12 to 16 hours. The guide strips shall then be removed and any loose material on the sides of the strips shall be chipped and removed. The remaining area shall be brushed clean and applied with the bond coat. A fresh concrete pack shall then be placed between the edges by trowel in layers wet on the bond coat. Each layer shall be approximately 25 mm thick and shall be pressed in position with hand and/or by a steel spatula to make it dense. The final line and level of the concrete pack shall be finished to match with the existing surrounding concrete surface to receive further protective treatment.

iii) In-situ Concrete in patches / stretches using form work:

In-situ concrete shall generally be used in column and beam jacketing / beam bottom repair or wherever the depth of damaged concrete is much more than the cover thickness / 60 mm.

1.1.7 Formwork

Form work for concrete shall be made using waterproof plywood strengthened and supported adequately using timber runners/ studs etc. M. S. tie bolts and steel forms shall be used wherever specified. Form work shall be made perfectly watertight and shall be supported in an engineering manner to take all the possible forces and disturbances till the concrete gains adequate strength to support itself. The scheme / general arrangement of form work and false work shall be got approved first from the Engineer. Minute details shall then be got approved from the Engineer after fixing the samples in place.

The concrete shall be placed and compacted before setting commences and shall not be subsequently disturbed. Method of placing should be such as to preclude segregation. Concrete shall be thoroughly compacted during the operations of placing and thoroughly worked around the reinforcement, around embedded fixtures and into corners. In case of beam bottom, the bottom shuttering shall be jacked up within fifteen minutes from laying concrete so as to squeeze and press the fresh mix in and against the surfaces. The form work shall not be removed till the specified period is over.

When concreting work has to be resumed on a surface which has hardened, such surface shall be roughened to remove entire laitance and after removing all loose aggregates it shall then be swept clean, thoroughly wetted and covered with a 12 mm layer of mortar composed of cement and sand in the same ratio as the cement and sand in the concrete mix. The 12 mm layer of mortar shall be freshly mixed and placed immediately before the placing of the new concrete.

For small and critical patches super fluid micro concrete is specified which shall be used as directed by the Engineer.

Curing : The new concrete shall be covered with a layer of sacking, canvas, Hessian or similar absorbent materials and kept constantly wet for seven days from the date of placing of concrete. Alternatively the concrete being thoroughly wetted may be covered by layer of approved water proof material, which should be kept in contact with it for seven days. Screeds and overlays shall be cured by ponding for at least seven days.

Inspection : Concrete shall be carefully inspected immediately after stripping off the form-work wherever provided or after 48 hours of setting. Any defective work shall either be removed or made good before concrete has thoroughly hardened. Serious defects or honey combing shall be brought to the notice of the Engineer for his advice for rectification.

Supervision : It is exceedingly difficult and costly to alter concrete once laid. Hence constant and strict engineering supervision is necessary during all the stages of laying or repairing concrete.

Measurement of RCC repair items :

- a) Items shall be measured on the basis of net projected area of repaired surface. For measurements around the corners relevant thickness shall be deducted from one of the two adjacent surface measurements. It shall be the Contractor's responsibility to get the measurements verified from the Engineer immediately after breaking and before repairs are started in a particular area. In case of any disagreement about the thickness, the same shall be verified on the basis of actual consumption of various materials and Engineer decision in this regard shall be final and binding to the Owner as well as the Contractor.
- b) Item of micro concrete shall be measured in the form of volume of ready packed concrete consumed actually.
- c) Item of reinforcement steel bars shall be measured on the basis of weight of bars actually consumed including all kinds of hooks, laps etc. Measurements shall be got approved before the reinforcement is covered with mortar / concrete.
- d) Item of mesh shall be measured as net projected area covered by the mesh + overlaps, if any. Measurements shall be got approved before the mesh is covered with mortar / concrete.

2. Repairs with Polymer Modified Mortar (PMM):

(a) Preparation of surfaces: The plaster and its traces shall be completely removed from the surface and the surface shall be washed with water. Any loose and de-bonded concrete shall be identified by tapping with a hammer and the same shall be removed with a chisel and hammer. All loose traces mortar, dust, grease oil, etc. must be removed. Cut the edges of the repair vertically to a minimum depth of 5 mm. Ensure back of rebar is also clean. Where reinforcing bars are corroded, cut back the concrete to at least 20mm behind the reinforcing bars. Mechanical breakers shall not be used, without prior written permission from the Engineer.

(b) Grouting shall be carried out at voids and cracks as specified hereinabove.

(c) Reinforcement: The corroded reinforcement shall be treated as given in previous paras and the reinforcement shall be replenished as specified above.

Mixing of PMM

Only full bags are mixed. Damaged or opened bags should not be used. Mix PMM in a forced action pan mixer, or with a helical paddle attached to a low speed (300-600rpm) mixer for 3 minutes until a lump free, thixotropic consistency is achieved. Only use clean water. Mixing water needed: 3.75 to 4.25 litres per 25kg bag. Allow the mortar to rest for 2 - 3 minutes and then remix briefly before applying. If temperature is more than 30⁰C, use chilled water as the mixing water.

Mortar application

The minimum temperatures must be maintained during application and for at least 24 hours thereafter for optimum curing of the product. The prepared substrate should be pre-soaked, preferably for 24 hours, but at least 2 hours before applying PMM. The surface must be saturated surface dry, but without standing water. PMM can be spray or hand-applied. Apply mixed product directly to the prepared damp substrate, or wet on wet onto the primed surface. Spraying the material with the necessary pressure will ensure good adhesion of the material. A thin scrape coat or contact layer before building up to the required thickness, wet on wet, will improve adhesion especially in case of hand application. Apply to the desired layer thickness of 12 to max 50 mm and level using a screeding bar, trowel or wooden board. PMM can be applied in thicker layers in smaller patches or where additional reinforcement is present. Smoothing with a trowel or finishing by float or sponge can be done as soon as the mortar has begun to stiffen.

Curing

PMM should be cured with water by covering with clear polythene sheeting over wet hessian.

3. Two component epoxy based zinc rich primer for steel reinforcement

Surface preparation

The steel surfaces should be wire brushed to remove all traces of corrosion. Ensure no oil, grease or dust is present. Surfaces should be dry.

Mixing:

Stir each component of coating. Add Hardener to Base and mix using a drilling machine fitted with a mixer.

Application:

Apply immediately after completion of preparation to prevent any contamination. Do not leave blasted or prepared steel uncoated. Brush the coating onto the prepared substrate, ensuring uniform and full coverage, particularly on the back face of reinforcement. In case of doubt on achieving continuous film in one coat apply second coat immediately after the drying of the first coat. Please consult Engineer for advising the numbers of coats necessary. Repair mortars can be applied as soon as the coating is dry.

4. Micro Concrete

The micro concrete for the repairs shall be carried out all as per manufacturer's specifications, as regards the proportioning is considered. The concrete surface shall be prepared as per para 2 (a) above and then the concrete shall be poured in the formwork. The stripping time of formwork and curing shall be as per manufacturer's specifications. Aggregates shall not be added to the micro concrete.

5. PAINTING

A) 100 % Acrylic Waterproof Paint: The surface to be painted shall be cleaned of all oil, grease, efflorescence, mildew, loose paint or other foreign and loose materials. Hairline cracks shall be opened in 'V' groove and filled with suitable crack fill. This cleaning will be done by katha brush and water jet sprays. After initial inspection of cleaning by Consulting Engineer, the primer application will be done as per the recommended mixing by the company. The application of the 1st coat of paint (shades selected by society from sample panels put up at site free of cost by contractor) will be done as per the mixing ratios recommended by the company by skilled laborers in a workman like manner. The application of the 2nd coat will be also done similarly and also as per the mixing ratios recommended by the company. All materials shall be evenly applied so as to be free of sags, runs, crawls or other defects. All coats shall be of proper consistency, and brush marks shall not be visible after application or after drying. The brushes shall be clean and in good condition before application of paint. P/A two coats of selected shade, as per manufacturers specifications. The technical representative of the company will also be called for inspection during and after application. Finished coat shall be of exact colour and shade as per approved sample and all painted surface shall have uniform colour and texture. Finish should be to the satisfaction of the Consulting Engineer and Bank. Reconciliation of the material will be done during the final bill.

B) Acrylic Distemper / Synthetic Enamel (Oil Paint): Surface preparation will be as above and bigger cracks to be filled up with cement mortar (Fine Sand). Scraping out all the existing lime with emery papers etc and exposing Neeru, applying cement primer and putty, prepared from best grade of whitening in two coats and making it smooth and leveling the same. After inspection applying one coat of synthetic enamel of approved shade and after drying applying second coat. Cleaning of adjoining areas, i.e. staircases, grills, doors, etc will be done strictly to the satisfaction of the Consulting Engineer. Brands used will be Asian Paints or equivalent first quality. Finish quality will be similar to that as mentioned for the external paint and to the satisfaction of the Consulting Engineer.

C) Oil Bound Distemper: Surface preparation will be done as above and after inspection of surface, one coat of Oil Bound Distemper and after drying second coat of Oil Bound Distemper of approved shade. Cleaning etc complete. Brands used will be. Asian Paints or equivalent first quality. Finish quality will be to the satisfaction of the Consulting Engineer.
